Jim,

I was really moved to be watching your programme and just want to say 'thanks' for showing the awful injustice to asbestos victims. You may remember my husband - George - who suffered from mesothelioma and if showing your programme can highlight the suffering and bad treatment of the victims then you will have played a big part.

Thank you - Mary Markwick.